Brookfield is Open for Business!

Located in Fairfield County, Brookfield is best known for its quality of life and its New England charm. Situated between two major lakes, Brookfield has superior shopping, excellent schools, and a commercial base that allows one of the lowest tax rates in the region.

Centrally located between New York City and Boston, easy access of I-84, I-684 & I-95

Development opportunities and a variety of housing options

Bordered by two beautiful lakes, over 1,300 acres of open space with hiking trails, newly built greenway, and town parks

Superior schools and easy access to premium healthcare

Employers benefit from a highly skilled workforce and being in a strategic location

The Economic and Community Development Specialist, Economic Development Commission, and Land Use staff are ready to help you!

Dana Ferraro
Community Development Specialist
(203) 775-7316
www.brookfieldedc.org

Jim Fisher
EDC Chairman
Jfisher@brookfieldct.gov
Welcome to Brookfield
CONNECTICUT

Population
17,143

Median Household Income
$107,537

Median Home Value
$376,700

Skilled Workforce
Bachelors or Higher: 47%

Education
98% of Brookfield high school students attend college